In the heart of Vancouver's historic downtown you will find our grand 1903 Craftsman-style home, officially known as the Chumasero-Smith House, filled with elegant antiques, old-fashioned charm and warm hospitality. Often described as a "living museum," our home is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and has been featured on national television as well as in international travel magazines.

Entertainment, fine restaurants, antique shops, and historic sites are all within walking distance. This remarkable Inn is an experience you cannot afford to miss during your stay in Vancouver!

Mike and Doris Hale, resident innkeepers, owners and native to Vancouver are ready to greet and assist you in any way possible to make your stay comfortable and memorable.
